

Selfies All Around Iceland 4 Days /3Nights

From $1596

2017

Here's a new twist on modern travel. If you face the limits on time that many travelers do, consider this unusual guided/High Speed? tour. In 4 days of zipping all the way around Iceland, you'll stop for short (and shorter) visits to major (and minor) sights to snap selfies. The basic tour makes a great Add-On to a long tour!

A few longer stops are included to let you experience Unique Iceland - such as bathing in a hot spring and a boat ride amongst icebergs. With decent tourist class hotels for overnights. A 16 seat Mercedes minibus means small group and comfortable travel. Free Wi-Fi and internet to let you upload selfies to all.

We're packaging this two ways.

Day 2: Travel East

400 km/248 mls

Today we travel 400 kilometres to our overnight location in East Iceland, starting with Lake Mývatn known for its rich bird life and extraordinary volcanic lava landscapes. First we visit the pseudo craters at Skútustaðir (20 minutes), followed by a walk in the lava fields of Dimmuborgir (30 minutes), and finally we soak in the geothermal Nature Baths at Lake Mývatn (1 hour). In the afternoon we explore hot springs and bubbling mud pools (20 minutes) before hiking at Dettifoss, Europe's most powerful waterfall. From there we travel through the uninhabited highlands and stop in Egilsstaðir (10 minutes). We continue over scenic roads to our next overnight location at Fáskrúðsfjörður, a small fishing village in the East Fjords. Estimated arrival time is 20:00.

Day 3: Trip to the Glacier

400 km/248 mls

The speedy tour around Iceland continues driving along beautiful fjords and past small fishing towns in East Iceland. Today's mileage is about 400 kilometres. There's a stop in the charming town of Djúpivogur (20 minutes), a one hour lunch break in the town of Höfn followed by 90 minutes to explore Jökulsárlón glacier lagoon by boat among floating icebergs. It is again selfie time at Svínafellsjökull glacier tongue (20 minutes) before we reach our overnight location in Southeast Iceland. Estimated arrival time is 19:00.

Day 4: South Coast & The Golden Circle

400 km/248 mls

The last day of our quick-but-quality journey around Iceland is full of highlights as we drive about 400 kilometres along the South Coast and the Golden Circle route to Reykjavík. The first stop is in Vík (20 minutes), Iceland's southernmost town, followed by another 20-minute photo extravaganza on the black lava beach of Reynisfjara. Say "group selfie" at Skógafoss waterfall (10 minutes) and one more time at Seljalandsfoss waterfall (10 minutes). In the afternoon we reach the last waterfall of the journey at Gullfoss where you have 20 minutes to admire one of Iceland's most famous nature sights. Two more 20 minutes stops: first at Geysir geothermal springs and then at Þingvellir National Park, a UNESCO world heritage site. Estimated drop off time at the Reykjavík bus terminal is 19:00.
